ANNUAL INDEX TO VOLUME 32

HOSPITAL MEDICINE

January through December 1996

Subjects

ACUTE CARE
—Acutely hospitalized elderly, axioms in the care of the (Hall), November, p 23
—Coma, acute, initial evaluation and management of (Rosenwasser and Schneck), December, p 39

CARDIOVASCULAR DISORDERS
—Cardiac risk, assessing before noncardiac surgery: basic principles (Thompson), August, p 31; the role of additional testing (Thompson), September, p 22; assessing during noncardiac surgery: intraoperative and postoperative considerations (Thompson), October, p 34
—Claudication, intermittent, conservative treatment of (Coffman), February, p 16
—Headache, when to suspect a serious cause of (Solomon and Mannix), May, p 23
—Hypertension, choosing initial therapy (Marks), December, p 25
—Oliguria, sudden, work-up of the patient with (Morrison), August, p 22
—Tachycardia, wide-complex, a clinical approach to (Wolf and Winshall), March, p 15

CLINICAL PICTORIAL REVIEW
—Spine abnormalities, appearance of on radiographs, January, p 36

DERMATOLOGIC DISORDERS
—Cutaneous bacterial infections, common (Zalar and Warmuth), June, p 31
—Cutaneous viral infections, common (Zalar and Warmuth), November, p 13
—Rosacea, recognizing and managing (Faria and Krull), February, p 35

DIAGNOSIS/IMAGING TECHNOLOGY
(see also The Diagnostic Image)
—Ankle, the acutely painful: differential diagnosis (Whitelow, Gatelmon, Corbett, and Gutierrez), July, p 13
—Brain tumors, clinical manifestations of (Black and Ciacci), April, p 33
—Coma, acute, initial evaluation and management of (Rosenwasser and Schneck), December, p 39
—Conjunctivitis, acute, differentiating the causes of in adults (Lish), January, p 28
—COPD, developments in the early recognition and treatment of (Petty), August, p 13
—Cranial nerves VII through XII, clinical evaluation of (Hanson), January, p 32
—Dystonia, focal (Davis, Charles, and Hook), October, p 26
—Endocrine abnormalities, work-up of (Ober), October, p 15
—Headache, when to suspect a serious cause of (Solomon and Mannix), May, p 23
—Hip, the painful: narrowing the differential diagnosis (Khabie, Sidor, and Zuckerman), January, p 13
—HIV infection, early manifestations of (Walker), July, p 21
—Hyperthyroidism, detection and management of: general considerations (Ringel and Cooper), May, p 14; special considerations (Ringel and Cooper), June, p 15
—Oliguria, sudden, work-up of the patient with (Morrison), August, p 22
—Renal problems, common misperceptions in diagnosing and managing (Steiner), September, p 15
—Rosacea, recognizing and managing (Faria and Krull), February, p 35
—Snoring: its evaluation and treatment (Jamieson and Becker), March, p 24
—Vaginal discharge, abnormal: diagnosing imbalances and infectious causes (Faro), March, p 34

THE DIAGNOSTIC IMAGE
—Erythema multiforme, the distinctive lesions of, April, p 14
—Fixed drug eruption, February, p 13
—Hammer toes, March, p 14
—Herpes zoster eruption, January, p 12
—Kerley B lines, December, p 52
—Lid retraction, July, p 10
—Macroprolactinoma, June, p 13
—Paget's disease, May, p 13
—Pericardial calcification, September, p 13
—Progressive limb deformity in Paget's disease, November, p 10
—Reverse "S" sign of Golden, October, p 13
—Tinea faciei, August, p 12

DRUG-INDUCED DISORDERS
—Adverse drug reactions, how to treat and prevent (Kucera and Greenberger), December, p 11
—Lung disorders, drug-induced, update on (Wesselius), May, p 32

ENDOCRINE/METABOLIC DISORDERS
—Diabetic nephropathy, new interventional strategies for (Adler), January, p 23
—Endocrine abnormalities, work-up of (Ober), October, p15
—Hyperthyroidism, detection and management of: general considerations (Ringel and Cooper), May, p 14; special considerations (Ringel and Cooper), June, p 15
—Obesity, medical management of (Fujioka), November, p 28

GENITOURINARY DISORDERS
—Cystitis, interstitial, effective treatments for (Parsons), February, p 24
—Oliguria, sudden, work-up of the patient with (Morrison), August, p 22

GERIATRIC MEDICINE
—Acutely hospitalized elderly, axioms in the care of the (Hall), November, p 23
—Frail elderly, evaluation of: tools for office practice (Foley and Palmer), June, p 21

GYNECOLOGIC DISORDERS
—Diaphragm, contraceptive, fitting the (Sondheimer), February, p 32
—Vaginal discharge, abnormal: diagnosing imbalances and infectious causes (Faro), March, p 34
—Vaginal infections and imbalances, treating the most common (Faro), April, p 43

HIV INFECTION
—Fever of unknown origin in HIV-infected adults (Miller and Durack), September, p 27
—Early manifestations of HIV infection (Walker), July, p 21

INFECTIOUS/PARASITIC DISEASE
—Conjunctivitis, acute, differentiating the causes of in adults (Lish), January, p 28
—Cutaneous bacterial infections, common (Zalar and Warmuth), June, p 31
—Cutaneous viral infections, common (Zalar and Warmuth), November, p 13
